

PRO SE ASSISTANCE CENTER

Overview

The Pro Se Assistance Center (PAC) is staffed by volunteer bankruptcy attorneys and law students. The PAC offers free legal guidance through 20-minute consultations to individuals who are representing themselves in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. Volunteers can provide information about the bankruptcy process and provide limited case-specific advice, but they cannot represent parties in court or file pleadings.

PRO SE ASSISTANCE CENTER

What We Do

- We provide limited legal advice and information on bankruptcy related issues and questions in the Northern District of Georgia.
- We answer questions about completing forms and preparing and filing court documents.
- We provide referrals and other resource information.

What We Do Not Do

- We do not give advice on any non-bankruptcy related legal issues or cases.
- We do not complete forms on behalf of any debtor or creditor.
- We do not provide representation in court.
- We do not file pleadings on behalf of any party.
- We do not commit to an attorney-client relationship beyond the limited relationship that exists during the in-person consultation.

Note: The PAC is not affiliated with the U. S. Bankruptcy Court.
