

OPEN CALENDAR PROCEDURES

(Effective August 10, 2017)

Set forth below are instructions for self-selecting hearing dates and times for most motions, applications and objections (referred to generically below as a “motion”) in cases assigned to Judge Baisier.

1. Selecting a Hearing Date.

- a. General Rule; Exclusions. Parties filing a motion must choose a hearing date for most motions pursuant to this Open Calendar Procedure.
- b. DO NOT use this Procedure for:
 - i. Matters that will take more than twenty (20) minutes to hear, or an emergency matter. Those types of matters will need to be specially set. Please e-mail Chambers, copying any known opposing counsel or opposing party, to request a special setting (see Item 6 below regarding e-mails to Chambers); OR
 - ii. Any of the following types of matters:
 - Certain stay relief motions (see Item 1(e) below);
 - Motions to avoid liens or to redeem property (see Item 1(f) below);
 - Reaffirmation matters (see Item 5 below);
 - Applications to employ professionals (filer should upload proposed order; form of order for professionals employed on a contingent fee basis is available under “General Information” on Chambers webpage); Counsel should consider whether related amendments to schedules are necessary in connection with these applications;
 - Motion for an examination under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2004; (filer should upload proposed order; form of order is available under “General Information”);
 - Motion to extend time to file schedules or statement of affairs (Court will address without a hearing);
 - Motion for emergency ex-parte relief from the stay pursuant to Bankruptcy Local Rule (BLR) 4001, unless filer knows the motion is contested or likely to be contested (filer should upload proposed order);
 - Motion to vacate or terminate employer deduction order (filer should upload proposed order);

- Motion in Chapter 11 cases to set bar date to file proofs of claim (filer should upload proposed order; order form is available under “General Information”); and
 - Matters on which all the necessary parties have agreed to a proposed consent order, if the proposed consent order is uploaded contemporaneously with the filing of the motion.
- c. Available Dates. A list of currently available hearing dates for Judge Baisier’s matters is available on the Court’s website at <http://www.ganb.uscourts.gov>. Available dates and times are grouped by the Chapter under which the case is filed and the type of matter to be heard. (A motion to dismiss or convert a Chapter 13 case or for relief from stay in a Chapter 13 case may be scheduled for hearing at the time of the confirmation hearing in that case, notwithstanding the grouping.) ALWAYS CHECK THE LIST OF CURRENTLY AVAILABLE DATES WHEN SETTING A HEARING BECAUSE A DATE MAY BE REMOVED FROM THE LIST AT ANY TIME.
- d. Notice Requirements. Notwithstanding FRBP 9006(d), the hearing date you select must be at least fourteen (14) days after the date on which you serve the motion and notice of hearing, except that a hearing on motion to extend or impose the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(c)(3)(B) and (c)(4)(B) may be set on a day that is at least ten (10) days after service. Some types of matters may require a longer lead time between the date of service and the date of the hearing. See, e.g., FRBP 2002 and 3007 and BLR 7007-1(b). If a rule gives a respondent a period of time to file a response, the hearing date picked must be at least two (2) business days after the last day on which a response could be timely filed. Also, remember that if a motion that is served by mail or ECF requires the filing of a response or some other act, Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9006(f) adds three (3) days to prescribed period.
- e. Certain Stay Relief Matters. If there is no available hearing date for a stay relief motion that is at least fourteen (14) days but less than thirty-one (31) days after the filing of the motion, and a movant is unwilling to consent to continue the stay, the movant’s attorney must e-mail Chambers to obtain a special date and time for a hearing (see Item 7 below regarding such e-mails). Failure to do so will be considered to be consent of movant to the continuance of the stay through the date on which the matter is actually heard and resolved by appropriate order or other ruling.
- f. Avoid Lien or Redeem. BLR 6008-1 and 6008-2 apply to motions to avoid a lien and to redeem, respectively. Those rules have their own forms for notice, which do not require that a hearing be noticed. The Court will notice a hearing on those matters if a response is filed. The Court will use a single standard form of order to grant a motion for the avoidance of a lien. That form is available under “General Information”.

- c. Service of Motions to Extend or Impose Stay. Motions under 11 U.S.C. § 362(c) should be served on all creditors as to whom the requested stay is applicable. For any creditor, such service would include service on: (1) the person and at the address shown on any proof of claim filed by that creditor in the prior case(s); (2) any attorney who entered an appearance for that creditor in the prior case(s); and (3) any proper individual or entity pursuant to FRBP 7004. Timely proof of service of both the motion and the notice of hearing is required.
4. Rescheduling. ECF Participants/Attorneys may use the Open Calendar Procedure to reset a hearing date (by filing an amended notice of hearing and supplying the date and time when filing), but only if all parties consent.
5. Reaffirmations. All hearings on reaffirmation agreements in cases pending in the Atlanta Division of the Northern District of Georgia are heard on a single day each month before either Judge Baisier or Judge Ellis-Monro. When self-calendaring a hearing on a reaffirmation agreement, please set those matters at 10:00am in Room 1202 on the dates listed solely for reaffirmation agreements.
6. E-Mails to Chambers. E-mails to Chambers sent pursuant to these procedures shall be addressed to the attention of the Courtroom Deputy and contain in the subject line (i) the notation "Request for Special Setting", (ii) the name of the debtor, and (iii) the case number. E-mails regarding adversary proceeding matters shall also contain the adversary proceeding number. The body of the e-mail shall outline in brief the need for the special setting, and shall provide a list of dates on which requesting counsel is available during the thirty (30) days after the first day on which the related motion could be heard. No e-mails addressed to the court should contain any argument.
7. Consequences for Failure to Comply With Open Calendar Procedure. Any motions that do not comply with this Open Calendar Procedure will not be heard including, without limitation, (i) motions scheduled with insufficient lead time, (ii) motions set for the wrong date, time or location, (iii) motions not served on all the required parties, (iv) motions set for a date not included in the Court's available dates (except for motions specially set as provided for herein), and (v) motions set on a date after that date has been removed from the available dates.
