

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

IN RE:

CONTINUANCE OF BANKRUPTCY
MATTERS IN THE UNITED STATES
BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF
GEORGIA DUE TO A LAPSE IN FEDERAL FUNDING

Administrative Order

No. 2025-04

Chief Judge Ellis-Monro

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, at midnight on October 1, 2025, the appropriations to the U.S. Department of Justice (the “Department”) and other federal agencies lapsed;

WHEREAS, absent an appropriation or continuing resolution, Department attorneys and employees were prohibited from working, even on a voluntary basis, except in very limited circumstances, including “emergencies involving the safety of human life or the preservation of property,” 31 U.S.C. § 1342;

WHEREAS, the Court issued two orders staying certain matters pending in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia on October 2, 2025 and November 3, 2025, respectively; and

WHEREAS, appropriations to the Department and other federal agencies were restored on November 12, 2025.

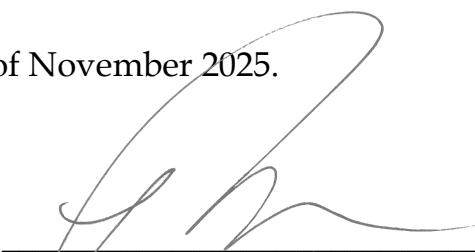

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. All hearings involving any claim, lien, or other interest of the United States of America, including its agencies or officers, shall be placed on the next appropriate calendar no earlier than November 17, 2025.

2. All current deadlines in matters involving a claim, lien, or other interest of the United States of America, including its agencies or officers, shall be extended through and including November 17, 2025.

3. The stay on all adversary proceedings to which the United States, including its agencies or officers, is a party is lifted as of November 13, 2025. All existing deadlines in adversary proceedings brought against the United States, including its agencies or officers, are extended by forty-three (43) days, which is the length of the lapse of appropriations.

SO ORDERED, this 13th day of November 2025.

Barbara Ellis-Monro, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Judge
