Debtor )

ORDER

On July 13, 2004, Debtor filed a motion to defer the entry of her discharge for 60 days because the Chapter 7 Trustee is investigating assets. Bankruptcy Rule 4004(c)(2) allows the court, on motion by the debtor, to defer entry of the discharge order for 30 days or to a date certain. The Advisory Committee note to Bankruptcy Rule 4004 suggests that the intent of Rule 4004(c)(2) is to allow the debtor sufficient time to negotiate and execute a reaffirmation agreement, which must be executed before entry of the discharge order. Additionally, Rule 4004(c)(2) appears to contemplate that the period of deferral would be no more than 30 days. Therefore, Debtor has failed to show she is entitled to deferral of the entry of her discharge. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Debtor's motion to defer the entry of her discharge is granted for 30 days.

The Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, is directed to serve a copy of this order upon Debtor, Debtor's attorney, the Chapter 7 Trustee, and all creditors and parties in interest.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this the 20th day of July, 2004.
