UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

LOCAL RULE 9010-2, stated below, sets forth the requirements for admission pro hac vice:

9010-2. Permission to practice in a particular case.

A non-resident attorney who is not an active member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia, but who is a member in good standing of the Bar of any United States Court or the highest court of any State may apply in writing for permission to appear pro hac vice.

(a) Applications for admission pro hac vice may be obtained from the Bankruptcy Clerk. The applicant shall state under penalty of perjury the applicant's (1) residence address, (2) office address and telephone number, (3) the courts to which admitted to practice and the date of admission, and (4) a statement that the applicant is in good standing and eligible to practice in all courts to which admitted. An attorney applying to appear pro hac vice must also designate a local member of the Bar of this Court with whom the opposing counsel and the Court may readily communicate regarding the conduct of the case and upon whom papers shall be served. The address, telephone number, and written consent of the designated local counsel must be filed with the attorney's pro hac vice application. Applications for admission pro hac vice shall be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee and a proposed order to be signed by the Bankruptcy Judge and shall be presented to the Bankruptcy Clerk. The nonresident attorney may be permitted to appear pro hac vice in the discretion of the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) If the non-resident attorney fails to respond to any order of the Court for appearance or otherwise, the designated local attorney shall have the responsibility and full authority to act for and on behalf of the client in all proceedings in connection with the case, including hearings, pretrial conferences, and trial.

ADMISSION FEE:

The fee for admission pro hac vice is $150.00 which must be paid in cash or by cashier's check or money order, to the CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION:

The application for Admission Pro Hac Vice must be typed and all blank spaces in the application must be completed. Information is subject to verification by Court personnel.

The attorney designated as local counsel must be an active member in good standing with the State Bar of Georgia and a member in good standing with the Bar of this Court. The attorney must also provide his/her State Bar of Georgia membership number as indicated on the application.
