The United States Bankruptcy Court is a part of the Judicial Branch of the United States government. As such, the Court's employees fall under the Court Personnel System (CPS) as opposed to the General Schedule (GS) for employees of the Executive Branch. Although comparable to the Executive Branch (civil service) in salary, leave accrual, health benefits, life insurance benefits, and retirement benefits, generally court employees are not subject to the many statutory and regulatory provisions that govern civil service positions. All court employees are at-will employees in the excepted service.

This temporary position is subject to mandatory electronic funds transfer (EFT).
